

1           The administrative responsibility under the 2 court system as proposed of course will be a substantial 3 responsibility and in the view of the majority of the 4 committee it was imperative that the recommendation of 5 the committee include guidelines in this area to be 6 covered by the rule-making power of the Court of Appeals.

7           With respect to the matter of clerks of court,
8 the committee recommendation is identical with the draft
9 article except in one respect. That is that the clerk
10 of the Superior Court in each county on the basis of the 11 committee recommendation shall be selected as prescribed
12 by law. In other respects this section follows the sub-
13 stance at least of the draft proposed by the Study Com-
14 mission.

15           The final section, that dealing with rule-
16 making power of the Court of Appeals, likewise follows 17 the existing situation and the proposed draft by the 18 Study Commission.

19           It is the conclusion of the majority of the 20 Committee on the Judicial Branch that the present system
21 has worked well. There has been complete compatibility
